Chapter 1 by Chris the Man

One day Anthony the Lion came to Turtle Island to buy a magic shell. The lion family was very poor so he had to board with pirates. His friend Bob was very nervous to be around such criminals but decided to go with Anthony to explore turtle island to find the ancient ruins of the the great turtle king once got there they set off on different paths and promised they meet up in the nearest village but the pirates they boarded with said since they boarded the boat they had to do some work. As the pirate barked various orders a police man followed them down the trail to the ancient temple of the Turtle Prince.

Ok, ok, that's enough of that said Bob, taking the joint from his friend Anthony's hand.

But don't you want to hear the rest of the story? How they ransacked the ancient temple of the Turtle Prince and restored the Lion family fortunes? said Anthony.

Hell no, said Bob, taking a hit off the joint.
